

Tech can be stressful and my emotions can get the best of me. I do take medication to help manage some of these circumstances that can lead to faults in my judgement.

It's best for me now to decompress with family I pray that there were positive messages and lessons for all. Focusing on unity, peace, and love is key to prosperity.